

The linearity of the circuit allows to evaluate f for any linear combination of the basis states. Assume that all $n + 1$ quantum bits are initialized with state $|0\rangle$. We apply the Hadamard gate to all n input bits. The resulting state is